

AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

Fainted on Seeing Her Mother-in-Law.
A WOMAN VISITOR TO COURT HEARS THE FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT OF HER SON'S MARRIAGE FROM A WITNESS.

Miss Annie Fox and Miss Lottie Miller on Tuesday caused the arrest of Mrs. Emma Earl, a boarding house keeper, at No. 461 Berry-st., on a charge of wrongfully withholding their trunks. The case came up yesterday for trial in the Lee Avenue Police Court, and among the witnesses in the case was a daughter of Mrs. Earl, who, when asked her name, said she was Mrs. Sands. At this announcement a well-dressed woman, who was sitting in the courtroom, quickly sprang from her seat and left the room, while Mrs. Sands, on recognizing her, fainted in the witness chair. She was carried by her brother into the open air, where she soon revived. The woman, who had left the courtroom, soon returned, and stepping up to the magistrate's desk, said she was Mrs. James Sands, of No. 187 South Eighth-st. The husband of the witness was her son, she said, and he announced to her that he had married a woman named Emma Earl. Her son had been missing for a week, and she had come to court to ask assistance in finding him.

"I want this marriage annulled," she said. When asked how old her son was, she said he was nineteen, while his wife was seventeen years old. The Justice told Mrs. Sands that she could do nothing and she left the court-room.

GATHERED ABOUT THE TOWN.

Thomas Gray, a laborer who worked on the new building at Jay and Fulton sts., was killed there yesterday by an accident on a freight elevator. He was on the second floor, putting lath on the elevator, when it went down and dragged him with it, crushing out his life. He was a married man, but his wife is in an asylum, and his three children are in an institution.

Dr. Roscoe W. Raymond addressed the Brooklyn Baptist Social Union last evening at the Clarendon Hall, on "Afterthoughts Concerning the Chicago Fair."

Dr. T. L. Cuyler lectured on "The Chicago Exposition as I Saw It," in the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church last evening.

Howard, of the United States Army, spoke last evening at a meeting of the Morrell Liquor Cure converts, held in the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association, in East Twenty-third-st. He said that he had investigated the cure and found no doubt that any one who put himself under the treatment would be entirely cured. Other speakers were the Rev. Dr. P. Stryker, A. F. Irvine, the Rev. Dr. Stone, Dr. W. A. Pall and ex-Judge Noah Davis.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOURERS MEET.

The first meeting of the annual conference of the Christian Endeavor Local Union of New-York City and its neighborhood was held last evening in the Marble Collegiate Church, Fifth-ave, and Twenty-ninth-st. The church was crowded. In giving a welcome, the Rev. Dr. J. D. Burrell said that it was a great day for the church when the young men and women were willing to stand on duty. It meant new life, new hearts in service, a transfusion of youthful blood, new courage to undertake great things for God, new faith to expect great things from Him.

The Rev. Dr. John Sander, pastor of the Tabernacle, Jersey City, spoke on "What Are Our Duties?" Separate conferences were held by the Rev. James D. Smith, Mrs. A. F. Schaeffer, Addison Gardner, Miss Annie Burr, Miss Matilda Jay and Miss A. J. Tait.

The conference continues this evening. The program includes among its speakers the Rev. Dr. C. H. Parkhurst, who is to talk on the "Christian Endeavor as a Citizen."

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

WHITE PLAINS.

Three thieves, who are supposed to have committed the various burglaries in Larchmont, New-Rochelle, Portchester and other towns along Long Island Sound, recently were captured in Rye Wednesday night. A mile west of Rye station there are dense woods, on the Park estate, on Wednesday afternoon three boys, who were napping in the woods, heard strange voices and saw four men coming toward them. They quietly hid themselves. The men came within a hundred feet of them, and after hiding a good-sized bundle beneath some large stones, started in the direction of the village. When they had gone the boys made a dash and investigated and discovered a large quantity of burglars' tools. They ran breathlessly into the village and informed Deputy Sheriff Ganung, who had they seen them. The Deputy Sheriff secured the assistance of several citizens, and at dusk went to the woods, where the burglars had hidden their tools. They waited until 9 o'clock, when three of the burglars appeared. As they were about to remove the stones, Ganung and his men moved them with shotguns and ordered them to throw up their hands. The thieves were so completely surprised that they hesitated. They were then handcuffed and taken to White Plains. They were taken before Justice Harney, of Rye, yesterday morning, who held them until 10 o'clock, when they were committed to the Rye House of Detention.

Dr. Roscoe W. Raymond addressed the Brooklyn Baptist Social Union last evening at the Clarendon Hall, on "Afterthoughts Concerning the Chicago Fair."

Dr. T. L. Cuyler lectured on "The Chicago Exposition as I Saw It," in the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church last evening.
